Seeking Louisa M. Parker's Husband

Fourteen Years Ago, After a Quarrel, E. James Parker Packed Up and Left Norwich - Woman Implicated in Watt Murder Case Died Without a Will, Leaving Much Property.

(Special to The Bulletin.) Providence, R. I., Dec. 27—If E. James Parker who left his wife 14 years ago in Norwich, Conn., and who is believed to be living in Providence under an assumed name, wants to inherit a sizable fortune left by his deserted wife, he will have to make himself known

Mrs. Louisa M. Potter Parker died Friday in Norwich, leaving no but a considerable amount of erty. Under the law of this state husband becomes administrator hout bonding and also becomes heir to the property.

About 14 years ago, E. James Parker husband is not about the estate in this case will go to two sisters of Mrs. Parker. These sisters are invalids and live in Norwich.

E. James Parker has been missing so long, 14 years, that he may be de-cided "legally dead" after court action, the Connecticut law allowing seven years for the "presumption of death" sults it is likely that more extended and wife quarrelled and as a result he packed up and left home. Since then no word has been received of him and it may be that he is dead.

John J. Dunn of Westerly has been death of the young woman, Agnes engaged to act as an attorney to find Parker, if possible. Mr. Dunn says under $5,000 bonds on the charge of that it is believed that the man came murder. will be made. Mr.

BINDLOSS CASE ARGUMENTS. Judge Shumway Took Papers After Listening to the Attorneys.

Friday before Judge Shumway at the New London court house arguments were made in the case of Charles H. Goss, trustee of the estate of Philip Bindloes vs. George Bindloss. Attorney Hadiai A. Hull argued for the estate and Attorney Richard P. Freeman for Mr. Bindless.

Judge Shumway took the papers. The testimony in the case was finished at Notwich Thursday and the court went to New London for the closing argu-

OBITUARY.

Charles W. Hill. Charles W. Hill, for 41 years a gro-cer in this city, died at 4 o'clock Fri-day morning at his home, No. 39 Di-vision street, of heart disease. For a vision street, of neart disease, for a number of years he had not enjoyed the best of health, but had been able to attend to his store. He was at the store for a short time Thursday, and during the night was taken critically

Charles Webster Hill was the son of Charles Webster Hill was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill and was born near Moosup Aug. 28, 1842. He spent his early life on his father's farm. As a young man he entered the grocery business in Danielson, remaining there for 10 years. In April, 1871, he came to this city and located a grocery business on Franklin square, where he remained for 35 years. Six years ago he moved the business to 147 Franklin street, at which place it is now constreet, at which place it is now con-ducted. Since 1895 the business has been conducted under the name of C. W. Hill & Son, Harry H. Hill being a partner with his father. Mr. Hill was at the time of his death, and for a period of nearly 20 years previous, treasurer of the New London County Agricultural society, and was always an active worker and well known figure at the annual fairs of the known figure at the annual fairs of the society. He was a member of St. James' lodge, No. 23, F. and A. M. He was a member of the Baptist church in Danielson and attended the Central Baptist church in this city.

Mr. Hill was a republican politically. He was of a quiet, unassuming nature and in his business life was known as a man of the highest integrity. By his kind, friendly disposition he made a host of friends and was highly honored and respected by all with whom he came in contact. His death is a source of sorrow to all who knew him and the sympathy of all is extended the members of the afflicted family in their bereavement.

Mr. Hill was married to Miss Jenies M. Briggs of Danielson in March, 1876. Besides his wife, Mr. Hill leaves leaves two sons, Harry H. and Charles L. Hill, a sister, Mrs. C. A. Sanderson, and a brother, Alfred T. Hill, both of Moosup.

Not for Her. The verger of a large church, seeing an old woman in one of the seats reserved for some important persons, beckoned her to come out. But just at that moment the organ started playing. The old woman, never having been in a church containing an organ,

Not Final Farewell. Lady Mary Wortley Montague once wrote a letter to her lover (whom she afterward married), concluding in the following manner: "There is no condition of life I could not have been happy in with you, so very much I liked you-I may say loved-since it is the last thing I'll ever say to you. This is telling you sincerely my greatest awakens, and now I will oblige you with a new proof of my generosity. I'll never see you more!"

Bullocks in English Church. At Emmanuel church, Nottingham, England, considerable excitement was caused among the congregation one Sunday by two bullocks entering while the vicar was preaching his sermon. The animals had -trayed from their quarters, and, ag the door open, walked in. went into the bapger, attracted by the tistry, but the front of the animals, commotion, got and by gentle . tactful persuasion, drove them out without any damage

Marriage Made Easy. Gretna Green, Scotland, became famous for its celebration of irregular marriages. For many years the average number was five hundred. The ceremony consisted only of an admission, before witnesses, by the couple that they were husband and wife, this being sufficient to constitute a valid marriage. After this the officiating unctionary (for many years a blacksmith), together with two witnesses. signed the marriage certificate.

Origin of the Bath Towel. At Fairview on Christmas day the surface of the water was 180 inches below high water mark. The snowfall gave a precipitation of .81 of an inch, not including the rain which followed. From the rain and the melted snow the reservoir should rise materially. At Stony brook at the last reading the water was 225 inches down, and at that level there were 51,000,000 gallons collected in the new basin.

Origin of the Bath Towel.

A towel manufacturer found that his machinery was not working right and that his towels were suffering a vast tangling of the threads. While the damaged towels to dry his hands. He found it pleasingly absorbent, and from the idea to which that gave rise was born the bath towel and a forwas born the bath towel and a fortune to the patentee.
